DETAILED SELECTION PROCESS

1. Selection to a Course/subject shall be purely based on merit and priority set by the applicant in a seat float mechanism. As such applicants are advised to choose more than one subject/course for securing admission.
2. Selection to a preferred Course/subject shall be carried out on merit basis and in case an aspirant's merit falls below the prioritized choice, the applicant shall be considered for the next choice/option set by the applicant. This downward progression will terminate at the last chosen option/choice.
3. If an applicant does not find his/her name in the merit lists of the chosen priorities of subject/course it indicates that the cut-off merit in the prioritized subjects is higher than the applicant.
4. If an applicant is selected at priority number 1 (set by the applicant), the subsequent choices for selection for that applicant shall not be considered. Similarly, there shall be no change in the subject/course of the aspirant in descending order of the priorities.
5. Vacancy based upward progression towards priority number 1 of the applicant shall be carried out automatically till fill up of the intake and/ or till closure of the admission process.

DETAILED ADMISSION PROCESS

Aspirants have to visit the College Website <http://www.admissions.baramullacollege.net> .

1. The aspirants have to fill the online registration form, fill in the required information and ensure to make selection of subject/course carefully and set priority as per the number of choices for which student intends to seek admission.
